I believe I am eligible for support at Keighley College – how do I apply?

When can I apply for financial support at Keighley College?

You can apply from August 2023 using an online application form. We would encourage all prospective and returning students who meet the eligibility criteria to apply as soon possible in order that their application can be processed before the start of term in September.

Is there a deadline?

- Priority will be given to applications received before 1 September 2023.
- Applications received throughout the academic year will be considered but not guaranteed.

How do I apply?

1. Apply directly to Keighley College and complete enrolment.
2. Complete the Student Financial Support Fund Application 23/24 form.
3. Bring any required evidence to your coaching tutor/course administrative team for assessment.
4. If you require assistance to complete your application form, please contact a member of your departments' Curriculum Administrative Office.

Do I need to submit evidence with the application form?

Yes, students applying for financial support and Free College Meals must provide proof of household/individual income. A list of acceptable documents are detailed on the application form.

I have applied and provided all the relevant evidence – what happens next?

Once your application has been assessed, you will be notified of the outcome of your application and how your award will be provided, should you be successful.

What will my award include and will I receive any payment?

Successful applicants will receive financial support in the form of awards in-kind (i.e. travel pass, equipment, food via our cashless system). Only in exceptional circumstances and where appropriate the College may pay students by BACS payment (money direct to students' bank account).

What exactly will I receive?

The type of support you receive will be specific to your needs depending on your programme of study and distance of travel to the campus you are attending. Financial assistance will be available to help with course-related expenses, such as travel, books, equipment and childcare costs.

What should I do if I am not happy with the outcome of my application?

Students are advised to discuss their application queries with their department's administrative staff in first instance.

Students can appeal if they are dissatisfied with a decision on their application's outcome. This should be in writing to the Student Funds Finance Manager, who will review the application and make a final decision.

Address: Support Funds Team, Student Life, Leeds City College, Park Lane Campus, Leeds, LS3 1AA.

Email: supportfund@leedscitycollege.ac.uk

What do I do if there are changes in my circumstances?

You are required to inform departments' Curriculum Administrative Office of any changes in circumstances that may affect the outcome and eligibility for funding. Further evidence may be required to reassess your application for a higher level of assistance. Failure to inform us of changes in circumstance may make you liable for the cost of any funding already received.

I am on benefits; do I need to inform the Department for Work & Pensions (DWP)?

Students are advised that if they are receiving support from any state benefits, it is their responsibility to inform the Department for Work and Pensions (DWP) about any financial support they receive from the College, as the financial support payment may affect their eligibility for some state benefits.

Will attendance have an impact on financial support?

You are expected, encouraged and supported to attend 100% of all your classes as well as work placement and any timetabled events.

- Failure to achieve a minimum of 90% attendance may lead to financial support be reduced, suspended or stopped.
 - Behaviour will also be taken into account and reviewed along with attendance on a regular basis.
